In these two writ petitions, the petitioners have approached this court at a time when their applications to get the tender forms issued for participating in the tender, were rejected. This court, on 12.3.2007, had directed the respondents to issue tender forms to the petitioners, provisionally, subject to further orders in the writ petitions. Pursuant thereto, the tender forms have been issued to the petitioners.

2. The learned Government Pleader, on instructions, submits that the petitioner in W.P(C) No.8170 of 2007 has not submitted tender forms with price bids.

3. I do not think that these writ petitions should be kept on file further. However, I direct the respondents to consider the tenders submitted in accordance with the eligibility of each tenderer taking into account their eligibility for pre-qualification also.

The writ petitions are disposed of as above.
